50X1-HUM

1. New security measures were introduced on 1 April by the UB in the port of Gdynia, apparently to check unauthorized circulation of communications between Poland and abroad. Sailor's movements are under especially strict control. [redacted] 50X1-HUM
2. Sailors who have brought parcels from abroad for people in Poland are obliged to leave them at the [redacted] Line Office. All parcels are examined. Addressees have to call in person for their parcels. 50X1-HUM
3. Sailors going ashore undergo a double check, first when leaving their ships and then when passing the port gate. The same procedure applies when they return to their ships. In addition, there are identity checks and even personal searches of sailors by Security Police in the town itself.
4. As a result, Polish seamen leaving their country are somewhat nervous and disinclined to take parcels to Poles living abroad.
